Proposal Writing Strategies and Funding Opportunities

Date: Monday, July 28, 2014
Time: 1:00 – 5:00 p.m.
Location: University of New Orleans
Room: EN 101

This workshop will give prospective Principal Investigators an overview of strategies to enhance the quality of proposals submitted to various funding opportunities at the National Science Foundation.

It is designed to be interactive in nature and includes activities related to key elements of competitive proposals such as objectives and outcomes, rationale, evaluation and effectively addressing merit review criteria. The workshop will culminate with a session on helpful hints and fatal flaws to consider when developing proposals.
